Description of Privacy Practices

I am dedicated to protecting your privacy. Below is a description of how I will maintain the confidentiality of your health records. My practices meet the requirements of federal and state privacy laws. I will not let anyone have access to your records or give anyone information without your written consent. If however you have agreed that I am to bill your insurance company for nutrition services your signature below indicates your permission for me to discuss diagnosis, progress, and dates of services with representatives of your insurance company. If your account becomes past due your signature below gives me permission to discuss dates of service and contact information with a collection agency representative. I am hereby asking permission to share certain information with other healthcare providers involved in your treatment. I may consult with other clinicians in the role of consultants about your case. In this situation I will disguise your identity. Unless instructed otherwise there will be times that I may have to respond to you via e-mail, text, phone, fax. It is important for you to realize that these messages could be inadvertently received or overheard by an unintended third party.

I can be reached at 805-448-8461 during office hours. I check voice mail and text and email regularly but if you should experience a life threatening emergency you should call 911 or go to your nearest emergency room.

In addition I will abide by state and federal laws that allow disclosures of health information to improve treatment, to receive payment for services. These laws also require that patients receive a written notice of the healthcare provider's privacy practices (this document). Patients may ask for further restrictions on the ways in which I use and disclose information. I am not required by law to agree to further restrictions. I will agree unless I am unable to do so. Patients may ask (in writing) that I communicate with them at a different address, or use a different means of communication. I will make every effort to accommodate such requests. Patients may see a request a copy of their nutrition records or any other health information that I keep on file. I may charge a reasonable fee for copies. Patients must ask in writing for any amendments to their records. I must decide whether an amendment is warranted but the request and explanation of the amendment will be kept in their file. Patients may request (in writing) a written account of disclosures I have made of their health records. Patients may designate a "Personal Representative" to help them exercise their privacy rights. Patients have the right to agree or object to family and friends being involved in their care. State laws require that suspected child abuse or neglect, or suspected child abuse or neglect or exploitation of a vulnerable adult must be reported.

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may complain to me and The Secretary, US Department of Health and Human Services, Washington DC 20201. If you have any questions about my privacy practices or confidentiality, please bring them to my attention.

Your signature below reflects that you have read and understand this statement of Privacy Practices. If you have any questions, you will discuss them with Julie Hayes-Nadler, RD.

INFORMED CONSENT FORM & TERMS FOR NUTRITION COUNSELING

I am employing the counseling services of Julie Hayes-Nadler, RDN, IFNCP so that I can obtain information and guidance about health factors within my own control (diet, nutrition, and related behaviors) in order to nourish and support my or my child's health and wellness.

I understand that Julie Hayes-Nadler, RDN, IFNCP is a Registered Dietitian/Nutritionist and Nutrition/Health Educator and does not dispense medical advice nor prescribe treatment.

Rather, she provides education to enhance my knowledge of health as it relates to food, lifestyle, exercise, dietary supplements, and behaviors associated with eating. While nutrition and botanical support can be an important compliment to my medical care, I understand nutrition counseling is not a substitute for the diagnosis, treatment, or care of disease by a medical provider.

Nutrition evaluation or testing that is recommended and I choose to utilize is not intended for the diagnoses of disease. Rather, these assessment tests are intended as a guide to developing an appropriate health-supportive program for me (or my child), and/or to monitor progress in achieving my goals for myself or my child.

I understand that Julie Hayes-Nadler, RDN, IFNCP will keep progress notes as a record of our work together. These notes document the topics that we talk about, interventions used, and treatment plan or any other considerations that may be helpful in our work together.

Medical records, personal information and history divulged in session to Julie Hayes-Nadler, RDN, IFNCP will be kept strictly confidential unless I consent to sharing my medical and nutrition related information by way of a signed release.

I have read the HIPPA form included in my registration packet and I agree to hold Julie Hayes-Nadler, RDN, ICFNP harmless for claims or damages in connection with her work with me or my child. This is a contract between myself and Julie Hayes-Nadler, RDN, ICNCP, and I understand that it is also a release of potential liability.

Nutrition counseling services may be terminated at the discretion of Julie Hayes-Nadler, RDN, IFNCP if written notification is provided to me 30 days in advance of final appointment. This will include a listing of referrals for continuity of care.
